All orders will be confirmed in writing and production documents will be provided upon confirmation of your order. Orders can be confirmed in person at our showroom, or at a distance through electronic and telephone communications. Once details of your order have been confirmed a 50% of the total cost of the work will be required to secure a place in our production schedule. A delay in this deposit payment may amount to a delay in the production of the piece. Once your invoice has been paid by you and we confirm that payment has been received a contract will come into existence on the terms of this agreement and to the exclusion of any prior correspondence or meeting between us to discuss the bespoke products.

4. BESPOKE COMMISSIONS

4.1 Make sure your measurements are accurate. All our products are bespoke and made to measurements and dimensions as indicated, sketches and/or designs you have given to us and/or using materials or swatches identified by you then it is your responsibility to ensure that these are correct. We can guide and assist when it comes to measuring your space if required.

4.2 All James & Rose dimensions are a close approximation and due to the nature of upholstery. Whilst the dimensions given are a close indication of the finished piece, due to the bespoke handmade nature of the piece these dimensions can vary slightly. There is a small margin of deviation built into any of our pieces but the dimension will be as close as possible to the specification as advised.

4.2 When purchasing from James & Rose, then you accept that we have no liability for errors or faults in products which have been caused by the provision to us of erroneous specifications provided by yourself. It must be clear that the product as provided is confirmed by yourself through a digital signature on the specification of the piece.

4.3 We will make any James & Rose pieces to your specifications within the confines of the design. However, we shall not be liable to you in respect of any actual or alleged defect in or dissatisfaction with any James & Rose product that arises directly or indirectly from your choice of any specification, design, material, fabric or any other requirement.

4.4 Any swatch or sample provided, or choice of fabric and leather on site is subject to the standard deviations which could be possible with any material. The swatch is an accurate representation of the finished product – but there may be slight deviations in batch and finish.

4.5 Upon payment of your deposit your choice of material is confirmed. The material may be ordered immediately. Any changes to the material after confirmation of the order may be subject to a charge in accordance with any financial cost to James & Rose.

5. YOUR RIGHTS TO MAKE CHANGES

5.1 Once your order has been accepted, we have a window of time to make any adjustments. You must reach out to James & Rose immediately to inform us of any changes unless previously discussed. If the production specification of the piece is incorrect and we have not commenced production of the product, we will try our best to accommodate any reasonable changes at our sole discretion. If it is possible we will let you know about any changes to the price, the timing of supply or anything else which would be necessary as a result of your requested change and ask you to confirm whether you wish to go ahead with the change. If we cannot make the change (for example if production has already commenced) the sofa will be delivered as is, or if possible, a fee will be levied to implement the changes.

5.2 Minor changes to the products. We may change any product to implement minor technical adjustments or as a result of unavailability of raw materials. We will try to minimise the impact of these changes. These changes will not affect your use of the product.
